Section to be completed BEFORE THE MOBILITY

I. PROPOSED MOBILITY PROGRAMME

Main subject field[6]: 0221

Level (select the main one): Short cycle (EQF level 5) ☐; Bachelor or equivalent first cycle (EQF level 6) ☒; Master or equivalent second cycle (EQF level 7) ☐; Doctoral or equivalent third cycle (EQF level 8) ☐

Number of students at the receiving institution benefiting from the teaching programme: ……8……

Number of teaching hours: ……8…… (minimum 8)

Language of instruction: ……English/Romanian……

Overall objectives of the mobility: Develop the series begun by Drs. Octavian Baban and Drake Williams and disseminate the information to Romanian students

Drs. Baban and Williams have researched and published the first book in Seria Comentarii Exegetice Românești, a unique Bible commentary series in Romania. This is supported by Centrului pentru Cercetări și Studii Istorice și Teologice Baptiste (the center for research, historical, and baptist studies Connection between Dr. Baban and Williams will develop steps for the next few books in the series. The teaching time will allow the first book to be shared with Romanian students.

Added value of the mobility (in the context of the modernisation and internationalisation strategies of the institutions involved):

The Baptist Institute will be developing the series Seria Comentarii Exegetice Românești further.

For ETF, the time in Bucharest will allow further progress to be made on an English series with the Early Christian Writers (https://www.gorgiaspress.com/early-christian-writers-a-commentary-series). Prof. Dr. Kobus Kok (ETF) is on the advisory board for this series.

Content of the teaching programme (including the virtual component, if applicable):

Greek exegesis of selected texts in Ephesians and Paul

Exploration of introductory matters for Ephesians such as Authorship, dating, and historical context

Expected outcomes and impact (e.g. on the professional development of the teaching staff member and on the competences of students at both institutions):

This will increase Romanian language ability of Dr. Drake Williams. It will pursue further contributors for this series in Romania.

For the students, it will provide exposure to a New Testament professor from a western university who understands the Romanian language and can explain the Greek text.

II. COMMITMENT OF THE THREE PARTIES

By signing[7] this document, the teaching staff member, the sending organisation and the receiving institution confirm that they approve the proposed mobility agreement.

The sending higher education institution or other organisation supports the staff mobility as part of its modernisation and internationalisation strategy and will recognise it as a component in any evaluation or assessment of the teaching staff member.

The teaching staff member will share their experience, in particular its impact on their professional development and on the sending higher education institution or other organisation, as a source of inspiration to others.

The teaching staff member and the beneficiary organisation commit to the requirements set out in the grant agreement signed between them.

The teaching staff member and the receiving institution will communicate to the sending organisation any problems or changes regarding the proposed mobility programme or mobility period.

[1] Adaptations of this template

- In case the mobility combines teaching and training activities, this template should be used and adjusted to fit both activity types.
- In the case of mobility between higher education institutions (HEIs) this agreement must always be signed by the staff member, the sending and the receiving HEI (three signatures in total).
- In the case of KA171 outgoing mobility of invited staff from (non-academic) organisation to teach in a HEI, this agreement must be signed by the participant, the beneficiary organisation, the HEI receiving the staff member, and the organisation they belong to (four signatures in total). An additional space should be added for signature of the beneficiary organisation organising the mobility.
- In the case of incoming mobility of invited staff from enterprises/(non-academic) organisation to teach in a HEI, this agreement must be signed by the staff member, the receiving institution (if applicable, the beneficiary organisation (if different from the receiving institution)) and the sending organisation (three or four signatures in total).

[2] Seniority: Junior (approx. < 10 years of experience), Intermediate (approx. > 10 and < 20 years of experience) or Senior (approx. > 20 years of experience).

[3] Nationality: Country to which the person belongs administratively and that issues the ID card and/or passport.

[4] Erasmus code: A unique identifier that every higher education institution that has been awarded with the Erasmus Charter for Higher Education receives. It is only applicable to higher education institutions located in EU Member States and third countries associated to the programme.

[5] Country code: ISO 3166-2 country codes available at: https://www.iso.org/obp/ui.

[6] The ISCED-F 2013 search tool (available at https://ec.europa.eu/eurostat/statistics-explained/index.php?title=International_Standard_Classification_of_Education_%28ISCED%29#ISCE should be used to find the ISCED 2013 detailed field of education and training.

[7] Circulating papers with original signatures is not compulsory. Scanned copies of signatures or electronic signatures may be accepted, depending on the national legislation of the country of the beneficiary organisation (in the case of mobility with third countries not associated to the programme: the national legislation of the EU Member State or third country associated to the programme). Certificates of attendance can be provided electronically or through any other means accessible to the staff member and the sending institution.
